JOINT COUNCIL/REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY

The Joint Council/Redevelopment Agency convened at 1:50 p.m. to consider Item 9.1 in a Joint Session.

9.1 Conduct a Public Hearing and approve the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message. (Mayor)

Documents Filed: (1) Memorandum from Mayor Reed, dated March 11, 2011, recommending conducting a public hearing and approving the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message. (2) Fifty Nine emails and correspondence from members of the public all dated March 22, 2011 regarding the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message.

Mayor Reed presented introductory remarks on the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message. Mayor Reed requested that the following clarification be added to the Mayor's Budget Message and accepted for the Parking Fund Review and Repurpose: that any excess parking funds would be offset parking expenses related to general fund expenses, such as debt service.

Mayor Reed opened the public hearing.

Public Comments: Expressing continued support to the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message were Bob Hennessy, George Martinez, Anthony Balderas, Alex Obeso, Kristina Contreras, Melissa Avalos and Tom Quigley, San José Conservation Corps, Patricia E. Sausedo and Pat Dando, San José Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce, Anil Babbar and Karl Lee, Santa Clara County Association of Realtors.

Kathleen King, Santa Clara Family Health Foundation, expressed her thanks for the Council's 10th year of support for the Children's Health Initiative. Lori Prudhomme, Cypress Senior Center thanked the Mayor and Council for keeping senior nutrition in the budget.

Steve Klein suggested directing the City Manager to aggressively institute a program to reduce all non-personnel expenses by 10%. Kevin R. Fish remarked that permanent pension reform was unfair and that 10% cuts across the board for each department is inequitable. Perry Mistry provided suggestions about developing a public private partnership between the land developers, the solar power companies and engineering design consultants to fulfill the San José Green Vision.

Ben Field, South Bay Labor Council, noted there is no plan for long term recovery and that the City will continue to be fiscally unstable. David Wall provided his observations about the growing public safety pensions and other personnel-related employee benefit costs.

Mayor Reed closed the public hearing.

Motion: Vice Mayor Nguyen moved approval of the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message, including the Mayor's clarification on parking issues. Council Member Constant seconded the motion.

Budget Director Jennifer Maguire and City Attorney Richard Doyle responded to Council questions and concerns. Council discussion ensued.

Council Member Rocha requested an amendment to the motion to direct Staff to include a study session to discuss the pension reform issues on the 1st and 2nd tier designs during the Budget Study Sessions in May 2011. The amendment was accepted by Vice Mayor Nguyen and Council Member Constant.

Action: On a call for the question, the motion carried unanimously, the FY 2011-2012 Mayor's March Budget Message was approved, including the clarification on Page 15, 3(a) Parking Fund Review and Repurpose: that any excess parking funds would be offset parking expenses related to general fund expenses, such as debt service.
