

ALL CHILDREN ACHIEVE COMMITTEE

Meeting Report
December 8, 2005

PRESENT: Vice-Chair Judy Chirco, Council Member Nancy Pyle

ABSENT: Chair Ken Yeager (excused)

STAFF: Mark Linder, Barbara Jordan

The meeting was convened at 1:35 p.m.

- a. Four-Year Report on Accomplishments and Gaps of the Blueprint for Bridging the Digital Divide (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services)

PRNS Assistant to the Director Neil Rufino announced that San José was selected as one of the 100 Best Communities for Young People by America's Promise, the national initiative created by Colin Powell. Upon motion of Councilmember Pyle, seconded by Vice-Chair Chirco, the Committee accepted the report.

- b. Discussion on Joint Use Agreement Streamlining (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services)

Upon motion of Councilmember Pyle, seconded by Vice-Chair Chirco, the Committee accepted the report.

- c. Report on Children's Health Initiatives (Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services)

Staff was requested to distribute a follow up Information Memo to include the data from the evaluation that the research company, Mathematica, conducted on parents and guardians of children enrolled in Healthy Kids. Staff will also return to the All Children Achieve Committee in February to present a more comprehensive report on the Mathematica evaluation. Upon motion of Councilmember Pyle, seconded by Vice-Chair Chirco, the Committee accepted the report.

d. Oral Petitions

e. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 2:20 p.m.

Judy Chirco, Vice-Chair
All Children Achieve Committee