

CALIFORNIA JURISDICTIONS WITH EXPANDED POLYSTYRENE BANS

The following cities and counties have banned provision of expanded polystyrene food packaging by restaurants and other commercial food vendors:

Alameda	Malibu	San Francisco
Albany	Marin County	Santa Cruz
Berkeley	Millbrae	Santa Cruz County
Calabasas	Monterey	Santa Monica
Capitola	Newport Beach	Scotts Valley
Carmel	Oakland	Seaside
Del Rey Oaks	Pacific Grove	South San Francisco
Emeryville	Pacifica	Watsonville
Fairfax	Palo Alto	West Hollywood
Hercules	Richmond
Laguna Beach	San Bruno

The following cities and counties have banned polystyrene foam at public events or facilities:

Aliso Viejo	Orange County	San Mateo County
Huntington Beach	Pittsburg	Sonoma County
Laguna Hills	San Clemente	Ventura County
Laguna Woods	San Juan Capistrano
Los Angeles	San Jose

Comprehensive polystyrene bans have also been enacted in the following US cities:

Freeport ME	Rahway NJ	Suffolk County NY
Issaquah WA	Seattle WA	Westchester NY
Portland OR	St. Paul MN

Sources

Californians Against Waste. 2010. Polystyrene: Local Ordinances.

http://www.cawrecycles.org/issues/plastic_campaign/polystyrene/local

Clean Water Action. 2009. Clean Water Action Supports Foam Packaging Ban.

<http://www.cleanwateraction.org/press/clean-water-action-supports-foam-packaging-ban>

Nation's Restaurant News. March 9, 2009. "Polystyrene ban proposed in California."

<http://www.nationsrestaurantnews-digital.com/nationsrestaurantnews/20090309/?pg=47#pg47>

Various city and county websites